Plaintiffs aver:

JURISDICTION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the claims for relief asserted herein pursuant to Article 6, Section 10 of the Constitution of the State of California, which grants the Superior Court “original jurisdiction in all causes except those given by statute to other courts.” The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction over Plaintiffs’ claims to another court.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over all defendants because upon information and belief, each defendant is a resident of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, owns and manages real property situated in California, and/or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render this Court’s jurisdiction over it consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

VENUE

3. Venue of this civil action is properly fixed in San Diego County, California, pursuant to Sections 395 and 395.5 of the California Code of Civil Procedure because the acts herein complained of occurred in the County of San Diego, and Plaintiffs' resulting injuries were sustained there. Further, Defendants own and operate real property in California, including within the County of San Diego, from which the allegations in this suit arise.

4. Certain averments of fact which are contained within certain Paragraphs of this Complaint are made upon information and belief which may be grounded in whole or in part upon matters discovered through investigation conducted by the undersigned counsel.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff ALEXIS NORMAN is an individual, a resident of San Diego County and a citizen of the State of California who resided at one of the Defendants' (defined below) apartment complexes in San Diego County during all relevant times.

6. Plaintiff NICOLETTE COCHRAN is an individual, a resident of San Diego County and a citizen of the State of California who resided at one of the Defendants' (defined below) apartment complexes in San Diego County during all relevant times.

7. Plaintiffs ROES 1 through 100 are former tenants of one or more of the Defendants herein, who, though not yet identified, are similarly situated to the above-named Plaintiffs, and who may serve as additional class representatives. The true names of Plaintiffs ROES 1 through 100 will be added to this Complaint when their identities become known. Hereinafter plaintiff ALEXIS NORMAN, plaintiff NICOLETTE COCHRAN, and unidentified plaintiff ROES 1-100 shall be collectively called "Plaintiffs".

8. Defendant ESSEX PROPERTY TRUST, INC., is a publicly traded, Maryland corporation (hereinafter "EP TRUST"). Defendant ESSEX PORTFOLIO, L.P., is a California limited partnership, (hereinafter "EP"). Defendant EP TRUST and EP (hereinafter collectively "ESSEX") describe their business in 2021 10-K SEC filings as follows: "ESSEX operates as a self-administered and self-managed real estate investment trust ("REIT") and is the sole general partner of the Operating Partnership, defined in ESSEX's 10-K as the "Essex Portfolio, L.P. and those entities/subsidiaries owned or controlled by Essex Portfolio, L.P." As of December 31, 2021, ESSEX owned approximately 96.6% of the ownership interest in the Operating Partnership with the remaining 3.4% interest owned by limited partners. As the sole general partner of the Operating Partnership, ESSEX has exclusive control of the Operating Partnership's day-to-day management." Thus, ESSEX has complete control of each of the real properties owned by the Operating Partnership.

9. ESSEX's 2021 10-K filing further provides: "Management operates Essex and the Operating Partnership as one business. The management of Essex consists of the same members as the management of the Operating Partnership. All of the Company's property ownership, development, and related business operations are conducted through the Operating Partnership and Essex has no material assets, other than its investment in the Operating Partnership. Essex's primary function is acting as the general partner of the Operating Partnership. The Operating Partnership holds substantially all of the assets of the Company, including the Company's ownership interests in its co-investments. The Operating Partnership conducts the operations of the business."

10. ESSEX states in its 2021 Annual Report that "Essex is a self-administered and self-managed REIT that acquires, develops, redevelops, and manages apartment communities in selected residential areas located on the West Coast of the United States. Essex owns all of its interests in its real estate investments, directly or indirectly, through the Operating Partnership. Essex is the sole general partner of the Operating Partnership and, as of December 31, 2021, had an approximately 96.6% general partner interest in the Operating Partnership."

11. ESSEX further provides: "As of December 31, 2021, the Company owned or had ownership interests in 252 operating apartment communities, comprising 61,911 apartment homes, excluding the Company's ownership in preferred equity co-investments, loan investments, three operating commercial buildings, and a development pipeline comprised of one consolidated project and one unconsolidated joint venture project." On September 1, 2022, ESSEX's market capitalization was approximately $17.26 billion.

12. Of its 252 apartment communities under its control, 193 are located in California.

ESSEX has organized its corporate structure as follows: The title to each apartment complex is held by a “single-purpose” entity. The entity that holds title to the apartment complex then operates the apartment community under a fictitious name (i.e., “doing business as [community name].”) The entity property owner or “landlord” is further in a partnership with at least one other ESSEX fully owned and controlled entity. Frequently, the ESSEX controlled entity that is the partner to the title-holding entity is Defendant EP, Defendant ESSEX, Defendant ESSEX MANAGEMENT CORPORATION, and/or Defendant ESSEX SPE, LLC.

13. Specifically, each of the following are the legal entities that Defendant ESSEX has formed, owns, and operates that are the direct property owners or “landlords” of the apartment complexes at issue in this litigation. Collectively the following entities that own the property are referred to herein as ENTITY DEFENDANTS and their fictitious names are referred to herein as “APARTMENT COMPLEXES”:

1 252. Upon information and belief, 100% of the putative plaintiffs resided in California at the 2 time their cause of action accrued, more than two-thirds of the putative plaintiffs continue to reside in 3 California, all injuries complained of herein occurred within California, and all defendants own
 4 property which is the subject of this litigation, in California and primarily, if not exclusively, do
 5 business within California.

6 253. Upon information and belief, each defendant identified herein has uniformity of 7 employees, offices, officers, management, ownership, and legal representation with each other
 8 defendant, all for the ultimate benefit of ESSEX resulting in a unified enterprise.

9 254. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and thereupon aver that Defendants have 10 substantially identical officers and directors as all other Defendants; use the same offices and business
 11 locations as all other Defendants; employ the same employees and attorneys as all other Defendants;
 12 are in the same business and venture, for the benefit of the same ultimate shareholders and members,
 13 as all other Defendants; do not maintain arm's-length relationships with all other Defendants; and share
 14 and provide labor, services, capital, revenue, real estate and/or management services with/for all other

 18 other natural persons, corporations, limited-liability companies, general partnerships, limited 19 partnerships, limited-liability partnerships, trusts, unincorporated associations, and/or other entities of 20 any kind or character who have incurred liability to Plaintiffs (and/or to one or more members of the 21 Plaintiff Class) in relation to the transactions and/or occurrences that are the subject of this Complaint,
 22 or who have any interest in the subject of this Complaint.

23 256. Except as may be described here, Plaintiffs are yet uninformed of the true names,
 24 capacities and nature and extent of participation in the course of conduct alleged here of the persons
 25 sued as DOES 1 through 100 inclusive, and Plaintiffs are yet uninformed of the nature and extent of 26 any interest that the persons sued as DOES 1 through 100 inclusive may have in the subject of the 27 Complaint. Plaintiffs therefore sues these defendants by fictitious names. Plaintiffs will amend this 28 Complaint to allege the true names and capacities of the DOE defendants when ascertained.

1 257. Upon information and belief, each of the Defendants named here, including DOES 1-
2 100 and their alter-egos, are joint-tortfeasors, in joint-enterprise, co-conspirators, and acting within the 3 scope of their agency and within their actual and apparent authority to conduct themselves in the 4 manner herein complained.

5 258. Upon information and belief, each of the Defendants named here, including DOES 1-
6 100 and their alter-egos, acted as an owner, principal, agent, employer, employee, joint-employer, joint-
7 venturer, franchisor, franchisee, shareholder, director, member, co-conspirator, shell, conduit, master,
8 or partner of each other, and at all times were acting within the scope and course and in pursuance of 9 his, her or its agency, employment, joint-employment, joint-venture, franchise, partnership, common 10 and joint-enterprise, or actual or apparent authority in concert with each other.

11 259. Upon information and belief, each of the Defendants named here, including DOES 1 -
12 100 and their alter-egos, are individually, jointly and severally liable to Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff class
13 because each Defendant directly or indirectly, or through an agent or employee, actually, proximately
14 and vicariously caused injury to Plaintiffs as described here.

15 260. Upon information and belief, the acts and omissions of each of the Defendants named
16 here, including DOES 1 - 100 and their alter-egos, contributed to the acts and omissions of each other
17 Defendant in proximately causing the complaints, injuries, and damages alleged. Defendants approved
18 of, condoned, and/or otherwise ratified each of the acts or omissions complained of. And Defendants
19 aided and abetted the acts and omissions of each other Defendant, including DOES 1 -100 and their 20 alter-egos, in proximately causing the complaints, injuries, and damages alleged.

21 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

22 261. ESSEX is a real estate development, acquisition, holding, and property management
23 conglomerate that has formed approximately 250 different entities to finance, purchase, build, hold,
24 and manage its expansive empire of residential apartment complexes in the United States including the 25 193 APARTMENT COMPLEXES with approximately 50,000 units located in California as identified
26 above. As ultimate beneficiary of 193 residential complexes in California, ESSEX not only realizes
27 rental income from tens of thousands of their tenants, but also from their standard operating procedures,
28

1 practices and policies of retaining the security deposits of its former tenants in bad faith, by fraudulently
2 charging former tenants amounts against, over and above their security deposits for unsubstantiated
3 work, work not necessary, work not performed and/or not the obligation of the departing tenant under 4 California law.

5 262. Defendants unlawfully retain former tenants' security deposits via a standard practice
6 and policy of billing former tenants for normal wear and tear; and charging former tenants fees for 7 labor and services that were not performed, not required, and moreover not substantiated as required
8 under California law. These excessive, unsubstantiated, unwarranted, unenforceable, unlawful and/or 9 fraudulent charges, and the subsequent withholding of security deposits from these former tenants and 10 the efforts to collect these charges over and above the security deposits, form the gravamen of the 11 Complaint.

12 263. Defendants' unreasonable, excessive, unlawful, unenforceable and/or unsubstantiated
13 charges made against former tenants' security deposits often exceed the amount of the deposit held by 14 Defendants. When this occurs, Defendants cause a bill, and sometimes a collections notice, to be sent 15 to former tenants, knowing that the monies claimed are based upon fraudulent, unreasonable, excessive, 16 unlawful, unenforceable and/or unsubstantiated move-out charges. This conduct has resulted in 17 damages to former tenants both through the collection of such amounts and by the reporting of such 18 alleged debts to third parties, defaming former tenants, damaging their credit and impairing their ability 19 to rent other apartments.

21 264. Civil Code section 1950.5(g)(1) provides that, no later than 21 calendar days after the 22 tenant vacates the premises, the landlord "shall furnish the tenant, by personal delivery or by first-class
23 mail, postage prepaid, a copy of an itemized statement indicating the basis for, and the amount of, any 24 security received and the disposition of the security, and shall return any remaining portion of the 25 security to the tenant."

26 265. Civil Code section 1950.5(g)(2)(B) provides that the landlord must also include copies 27 of documents substantiating the charges incurred and deducted by the landlord to repair or clean the 28 premises; specifically, the "landlord shall provide the tenant a copy of the bill, invoice, or receipt

1 supplied by the person or entity performing the work.”¹

2 266. Civil Code section 1950.5(g)(2)(A) provides: “If the landlord or landlord's employee
3 did the work, the itemized statement shall reasonably describe the work performed. The itemized
4 statement shall include the time spent and the reasonable hourly rate charged.” ESSEX’s itemizations
5 and other documentation sent to former tenants, referred to as “Move-out Statements,” by universal,
6 standard operating procedure and policy do not satisfy any of the requirements as set forth in section
7 1950.5(g)(2).

8 267. ESSEX’s standard policies, operating procedures and practices for the administration
9 of its former tenants’ security deposits uniformly and systematically violate Civil Code section
10 1950.5(g)(2). ESSEX, as a matter of standard policy and practice, does not send bills, receipts, or 11 invoices from the third-party vendors it alleges performed work on the vacated premises. Additionally,
12 ESSEX, as a matter of standard policy and practice does not describe the work allegedly performed on 13 the vacated leasehold in the manner required by code and instead uses unlawfully vague descriptions
14 – a uniform practice designed to obfuscate the work, if any, performed on a leasehold, who performed
15 the work, and the cost and/or manhours of the work with the intention of wrongfully maximizing
16 security deposit retention. By uniform and standard operating procedure, it is impossible to determine,
17 in contravention of law, if the work ESSEX allegedly performed on the leasehold was performed by a
18 vendor or an in-house employee.
19

20 268. Plaintiffs ALEXIS NORMAN and NICOLETTE COCHRAN are former tenants of 21 Defendants, formerly residing at one of Defendants’ properties generally doing business as Form 15
22 and located at 1450 Market St #104, San Diego, CA 92101. Plaintiffs ALEXIS NORMAN and 23 NICOLETTE COCHRAN leased an apartment from ESSEX beginning on approximately April 20, 24 2021. Their lease with ESSEX required a security deposit of approximately $300.00 upon move-in.
25 Plaintiffs NORMAN & COCHRAN vacated their leased premises at the Form 15 Apartments on or 26 about March 13, 2022. They never received any substantiated itemized statement regarding the 27

28 ¹ The “receipt requirement” of Civ. Code § 1950.5(g)(2) is excepted only when deductions for cleaning and repairs combined do not exceed $125.00.

disposition of their security deposit at that time, nor did they receive any such substantiated statement within 21 days after vacating. Instead, they received a Preliminary Move Out Statement from Defendants on or about March 21, 2022, which purported to deduct from their security deposit, among other things: $280.00 for “Carpet Cleaning;” $385.75 for “Apartment Paint & Supplies;” $312.93 for “Blind Replacement.” However, Defendants produced only one vendor receipt for this work – specifically for the Blind Replacement and nothing else. Defendants did not produce any vendor receipts or any statement describing the work, hours worked, and hourly rate charged for the Carpet Cleaning or the Apartment Painting & Supplies. Then, after the Plaintiffs complained to Defendants about the unsubstantiated charges on their Preliminary Move Out Statement, on or about June 22, 2022, Defendants issued to Plaintiffs a revised move out statement entitled Summary of Move Out Charges. However, this Summary of Move Out Charges still purported to deduct from Plaintiffs’ security deposit $280.00 for “Carpet Cleaning” and $385.75 for “Painting”. And, as with the Preliminary Move Out Statement, the Summary of Move Out Charges likewise did not include any vendor receipts and did not include any description of the work, hours worked, and hourly rate applied to the work. To date, Defendants have never produced to Plaintiffs any vendor receipts for the alleged carpet cleaning and painting. Nor have they produced any statement of the work performed, the hours of work, and the hourly rate for the work performed allegedly cleaning the carpet and painting.

269. The Civil Code sets forth requirements for the treatment of security deposits upon termination of a residential lease, inter alia, section 1950.5(b) provides that a landlord may only use a security deposit to satisfy charges against a former tenant for: (1) rent in arrears; (2) repairs exclusive of wear and tear; (3) cleaning required to bring the leasehold back to the condition it was in when the tenant accepted the tenancy; and (4) “to remedy future defaults by the tenant in any obligation under the rental agreement to restore, replace, or return personal property or appurtenances” if provided for in the lease.

270. Section 1950.5(g)(1) requires that the balance of security deposits and an itemization of their disposition must be provided to the departing tenant within 21 days of vacating the leasehold.

271. Section 1950.5(g)(2) describes the substantiation required to be sent to former tenants

1 for charges levied against security deposits – a reasonable description of work performed by employees
 2 including hours worked and hourly rate charged; and, for work by vendors, copies of invoices and 3 receipts from the vendors who performed work.

4 272. Section 1950.5(m) provides that no portion of a security deposit may be deemed non-
 5 refundable by operation of the lease.

6 273. Defendants in this action systematically, uniformly, and in bad faith have violated the 7 Civil Code to the detriment of thousands of Californians over many years by charging for repairs,
 8 replacement, and cleaning that were never done; a practice obscured by intentionally failing to itemize
 9 and substantiate repairs, replacement and cleaning by code, if they were done. As such, these former 10 California tenants of Defendants have each been deprived of some or all of their security deposits which 11 Defendants were legally obligated to return to its tenants at the conclusion of their respective leases.

13 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

14 274. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference the allegations of all preceding 15 paragraphs.

17 275. Plaintiffs bring this action as a class action pursuant to California Civil Code of 18 Procedure § 382 on behalf of themselves and all other similarly situated persons in the Classes, which 19 are composed of and defined as follows, excepting only individuals against whom or in whose favor a 20 final judgment has already been rendered with respect to the defendant(s):

21 276. Unsubstantiated-Charges Class: All former residents of Defendants' properties
 22 whose leaseholds terminated between September 27, 2018 to present, and who had at least $125 of 23 their security deposit retained for cleaning, repairs and/or replacements combined (the "Plaintiff 24 Class.").

25 277. Plaintiffs reserve the right to amend this Class and to add any number of subclasses.
 26 The Court should permit this action to be maintained as a class action pursuant to California Code of 27 Civil Procedure section 382 because:

28 a. Numerosity: The Plaintiff Class is so numerous that the individual joinder of all members is impracticable. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that there are more than 100,000 class members in total and a sufficiently numerous amount in the proposed class.

b. Common Questions Predominate: Common questions of law and fact exist as to all members of the class that predominate over any questions that affect only individual members. These common questions of law and fact include:

1. Whether Defendants enacted policies or engaged in a pattern and practice in violation of Civil Code section 1950.5(g)(1) of failing to provide itemized statements detailing charges for repairs or cleaning deducted from security deposits of its former tenants within 21 days of move out.
2. Whether Defendants enacted policies or engaged in a pattern and practice of failing to provide copies of vendor-supplied bills, receipts or invoices for repairs or cleaning deducted from security deposits of its former tenants within 21 days of move out.
3. Whether Defendants' uniform security deposit itemizations satisfy the requirements for any alleged "employee performed work" on vacated leaseholds under Civil Code section 1950.5(g)(2)(A).
4. Whether Defendants' uniform security deposit itemizations satisfy the requirements for any alleged "vendor performed work" on vacated leaseholds under Civil Code section 1950.5(g)(2).
5. Whether Defendants, by operation of law, are barred from seeking recovery for amounts which could legitimately have been charged at move out due to their systematic and bad faith violation of Civil Code section 1950.5 and other equitable or statutory provisions of law.
6. Whether any and all Defendants are liable to each former tenant who is a class member for punitive and/or treble damages for bad-faith retention of security deposits under Civil Code section 1950.5(l).

7. Whether Granberry v. Islay Investments 9 Cal. 4th 738 mandates that the Defendant return all of the security deposit retained from the Plaintiff Class for its uniform violation of Civil Code section 1950.5.

8. The appropriate measure of class-wide legal and/or equitable relief.

c. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of those of the Plaintiff Class. Plaintiff and all Plaintiff Class members sustained injuries and damages arising from Defendants' common policies, practices and course of conduct, and those injuries and damages were caused directly by the Defendants' wrongful conduct in violation of law as alleged.

d. Adequacy of Representation: Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interest of the members of the Plaintiff Class. Plaintiff has no interests adverse to the interests of absent class members. Plaintiff has retained counsel adequate to prosecute the case for the entire class.

e. Superiority: A class action is superior to other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy since individual joinder of all members of the class is impracticable; class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently, and without the unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would engender. Furthermore, because Defendants are expected to contend that any individual's damages may be relatively small, the expense and burden of individual litigation make it difficult or impossible for individual class members to redress the wrongs done to them, while an important public interest will be served by addressing the matter as a class action. The cost to the judicial system of individual adjudication would be substantial and present the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments. In addition, individual actions give Defendants too many opportunities to take advantage of unrepresented tenants at a summary proceeding without access to substantial discovery, as discovery is not available in small claims court.

278. Plaintiffs are unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be encountered in the management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Unlawful Retention of Residential Security Deposits

(California Civil Code § 1950.5)

(Against all Defendants)

279. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference the allegations of all preceding paragraphs.

280. This cause of action is brought against Defendants on behalf of Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class.

281. Defendants charged unsubstantiated cleaning, repair, replacement, and/or painting fees to Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class upon the termination of their leasehold and deducted these charges from their security deposits.

282. Defendants did not provide a copy of an itemized statement indicating the basis for, and the amount of, any security received and the disposition of the security within 21 days of Plaintiffs' and the Plaintiff Class vacating the respective leased premises owned and managed by Defendants.

283. Defendants did not provide the requisite substantiation of the charges against Plaintiffs' and the Plaintiff Class's security deposits as required under Civil Code section 1950.5(g)(2).

284. Defendants, as a result of these charges, unlawfully retained some or all of Plaintiffs' and the Plaintiff Class's security deposits.

285. Defendants engaged in the above-described misconduct in bad faith.

286. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class suffered damages.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Restitution as a Remedy for “Unfair Competition”

(California Business and Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq.)

(Against All Defendants)

287. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference the allegations of all preceding paragraphs.

288. This cause of action is brought against Defendants on behalf of Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class.

289. Pursuant to section 17200 of the California Business and Professions Code, “any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice” constitutes “unfair competition.”

290. The violations of the California Civil Code and other wrongdoing alleged herein constitute unlawful, unfair and/or fraudulent business acts and practices, and therefore “unfair competition,” for the purposes of section 17200 of the California Business and Professions Code. Among other violations, Defendants’ collections and attempted collections of amounts over and above a retained security deposit are unlawful, all entitling Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class to restitution under the UCL.

291. Likewise, Defendants’ deduction from the Plaintiffs’ and the Plaintiff Class’s respective security deposits without timely providing Plaintiffs and the Class legally competent itemized descriptions of the repairs, replacement or cleaning purportedly performed by Defendants constitutes an unlawful, unfair and/or fraudulent business practice. And Defendants’ deduction from the Plaintiffs’ and the Plaintiff Class’s respective security deposits without timely providing Plaintiffs and the Class third party vendor invoices for all repairs, replacement or cleaning purportedly performed by third party vendors constitutes an unlawful, unfair and/or fraudulent business practice.

292. Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class have suffered financial injury in fact and have lost money and/or property as a result of such unfair competition.

293. The facts set forth establish that the Plaintiffs and the members of the Plaintiff Class are entitled to judgment over and against Defendants and all of them, jointly and severally, awarding

1 restitution to the Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class of all monies acquired by means of the described
 2 unfair competition, including wrongfully withheld security deposits and associated penalties.

3 294. Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class are further entitled to declaratory and injunctive relief
 4 determining the rights and obligations in dispute among the Parties and an order mandating Defendants
 5 adhere to the mandates of law with respect to their security deposit accounting practices.

7 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

8 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and other members of Plaintiff Class, pray:

- 9 1. For actual damages sustained by Plaintiffs and the Plaintiff Class members, including but not 10 limited to, unlawfully retained security deposits; any amounts paid to Defendants over and 11 above what was retained of their respective security deposits for unreasonable and 12 unsubstantiated charges at move-out; plus any other amounts collected from Class members in 13 connection with their leasehold termination for purported repairs, replacements, painting, carpet
 14 replacement or cleaning, accelerated rent, rental concession charge-backs, and any other 15 charges collected in violation of law.
- 16 2. For return of the entirety of all Plaintiffs' and the Plaintiff Class's security deposits retained by 17 Defendants;
- 18 3. For penalties available pursuant to Civil Code section 1950.5(l);
- 19 4. For penalties available pursuant to Civil Code section 3345;
- 20 5. For restitution for violation of Business and Professions Code sections 17200 et seq.;
- 21 6. For pre-judgment interest;
- 22 7. For attorney's fees and expenses recoverable under law, including, without limitation, Code of 23 Civil Procedure 1021.5;
- 24 8. For costs, including class action notice and administration expenses;
- 25 9. For injunctive relief against Defendants' conduct, including an injunction:
 - 26 a. Requiring Defendants to issue proper itemizations of security deposits as required by 27 Civil Code section 1950.5 within the time prescribed by law.
 - 28 b. Requiring Defendants to provide a third-party documentation for every cleaning,

1 replacement, and repair charges consistent with the provisions of Civil Code §
2 1950.5(g)(2);

3 c. Prohibiting Defendants from charging any fees against residential security deposits
4 other than the charges specifically authorized by Civil Code section 1950.5(b); and

5 d. To declare all alleged outstanding balances owed by class members invalid and prohibit 6 collection thereupon.

7 10. For declaratory relief, declaring that outstanding balances alleged owed by the Plaintiff Class
8 members are extinguished by operation of this suit;

9 11. For all other appropriate declaratory and equitable relief; and 10 12. Any other relief that this Court deems just.
